Brief Services

We provide short-term, focused supports for children and youth, and their families, to address specific emotional, social and/or behavioural concerns.

This support will help you build upon the knowledge, skills and abilities you already have, to achieve an identified goal.

You may receive Brief Services through:

- Individual sessions
- Family sessions
- An educational seminar
- A workshop series

Our Team will work with you to ensure that you receive the most suitable supports.

If you need more information, please contact us at 519-337-3701.
