Counselling and Therapy

We provide counselling and therapy services for children and youth, and their families, to focus on reducing more severe emotional, social, behavioural and/or self-regulation problems.

Counselling and Therapy may be a good fit for your family if your issues are deemed to be more acute. You may receive these services in individual and/or family sessions.

Youth 12 years of age or older have the legal right to private, confidential counselling, although we usually encourage involvement with your parent/guardian.

Our Team will work with you to ensure that you receive the most suitable supports.

If you need more information, please contact us at 519-337-3701.
